Speak up. Stay safe.

Urban drug networks do not care how much suffering or damage they inflict on people's lives.

These criminals sometimes take over the homes of victims (known as cuckooing).

Some of the signs to look out for:

- Change in behaviour
- Use of different language e.g. Going Country; Cunch; Trapping; Shots
- Associating with networks
- Signs of assault and/or malnutrition
- Access to numerous phones
- Younger victims also includes: truancy/missing; bus/train tickets; tiredness; new clothing, trainers and cash

But you have the power to stop the drug networks. Contact Crimestoppers anonymously online or by phone.

Help us keep your community safe and protect those who need help.

Examples of what we need to know:

- Names of individuals involved and network names if known
- Addresses
- Car registration numbers of those visiting the premises
- Mobile phone numbers of individuals if known
- Types of drugs and weapons involved
